

5) When examining your own heart, what are some of the things of this world that tend to distract you from God and His good plan for you?

6) How does Revelation 17:14 show the balance between God's sovereignty and our responsibility?

7) What does the beast's turn against the prostitute tell you about Satan's character and end goal?

8) How can Christians pursue faithfulness to Christ when so much of our society seems caught up in "Babylonianism"?

9) What questions do you still have regarding Revelation 17? What are some applications for us from Revelation 17?
