PRAYER WARRIOR
Sandra Wiseman

From Your Pastor: Holy Week

This Sunday is Palm Sunday and kicks off a week we often refer to as Holy Week or Passion Week. It is the week we are especially reminded of the events leading up to Jesus' crucifixion on the cross and His Sunday resurrection (which we celebrate on Easter). This Sunday, our Lifegroups will be looking at Jesus' triumphal entry into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday and I'll be preaching on Jesus' final moments on the cross.

There are many events that took place during the final week of Jesus life (triumphal entry, cursing of fig tree, cleansing of the Temple, last supper, prayer at Gethsemane, arrest, trials, crucifixion, tearing of the veil, burial and resurrection). Let me encourage you to pick one of the Gospels and review the events of passion week. We need to be reminded of all that Jesus endured in providing a means for us to be saved.

As a community, we try to join with other churches for some special community services where we can be reminded of Jesus' sacrifice for our sins. While we have areas where we don't all agree, we can come together in remembering and celebrating the cross and resurrection of our Lord. As believers, we are united in Christ and the salvation that is found in Christ alone. I hope you might join us in some of the holy week services. You can see the three community services identified above. In addition, we will have a Lord's Supper service on Thursday, April 17th at 7:00 PM.

We were able to give out lots of Easter and Easter Egg Hunt invitations on Tuesday evening. We hope to be able to share the gospel with lots of children on Saturday (13th) at the Logan Hubble park during the Easter Egg hunt. We will be doing some clean-up around the church on Saturday morning (9:00 AM). We are looking forward to our Easter services on Apr. 21st. We would love for lots of our members to come to our 8:30 AM service and then serve (greeters, nursery, etc.) during the 10:00 AM service. Let's pray for our services and wouldn't it be awesome if some got saved this Easter! Who are you going to invite? Bro. Harold
